This followed the inability of the court to sit on Thursday, December 20 to decide if it has the jurisdiction or not to entertain the application for bail made by the defence counsel. The inability of the court to sit on that day was due to many pending cases for hearing that same day.

The presiding Chief Magistrate of Onitsha Magisterial District, O. N. Ikeh had after hearing the submissions of the counsel to the complainants, Victor C. Alo, Augustine Obo and the police Prosecutor on one side, K.K. Oguejiofor, Kenechukwu Kenster and others for defence, refused an oral application for bail made by the defence counsel.
