

Mother kills her child who has health challenge by feeding her with rat poison in Ondo

ON APRIL 18, 2019 8:15 PMIN NEWSCOMMENTS

Dayo Johnson Akure

A single mother, identified as Aina Bello has reportedly killed her own four year old daughter, Sadie by feeding her with rat poison because she had health challenges.

She was subsequently arrested by detectives in the state police command.

Police source hinted Vanguard that the ugly incident happened at Iyase Quarter, Arigidi Akoko in Akoko North West council area of the state.

She was alleged to have deliberately fed the sick daughter with rat poison in order to kill her.

Sources said that " shortly after the baby took the poisonous drink from her mother she passed away.

Vanguard was informed by a police source that " Aina confessed that she deliberately killed Sadia because she was fed up with the bad health condition of the little girl.

Woman dies in sleep after fight with neighbour

" She (Aina) said she had spent everything (money) she had on the health of the girl and there was no improvement. She claimed that at age four, the young girl cannot walk, this informed her decision to take her (Sadia) life. "

Contacted the police spokesperson Femi Joseph confirmed the incident and the arrest of the suspect.

Joseph said the case had been transferred to the Criminal Investigation Department of the state police command while investigation had commenced on the matter.

He added that " The suspect is with us at the CID, and investigation on the incident has commenced. " Joseph stated.

The remains of the deceased, according to him "has been deposited at the morgue of the state hospital, Ikare Akoko for autopsy.

Vanguard gathered that the suspected killer would soon be paraded by the police.