Gunmen shoot, behead one in Rivers

By Davies Iheamnachor

PORT HARCOURT—A middle-aged man, identified as Chima Jonah, has been reported killed and beheaded in Rivers State by unknown persons.

The victim was killed and his head decapitated in the presence of his wife at Rumuekini community, Obio/Akpor Local Government Area of the state.

The incident, according to a community source who pleaded anonymity, happened around 11p.m., Wednesday night.

The source noted that the killers had put off the victim's power generator "and when he went out to check why the generator went off, he was shot."

He added: "The incident is shocking. Last night Chima was outside with his brothers and friends at a sit-out joint on the School Road.

"Later, around 11p.m., we heard that he was inside when the killers came. The boys went to his power generator that was on and closed his fuel tap.

"When he noticed that his generator's sound had changed he went outside to find out what happened.

"Immediately he came out, the boys shot him. But he ran back into the house. The boys followed him, killed him and cut off his head."

The source also called on the state government and the Police in the state to put more effort into providing security to the people of the state.

The Public Relations Officer, Rivers State Police Command, DSP Nnamdi Omoni, said Police were not aware of the incident.

I've stolen 10 cars by posing as applicant—Suspect
