

Zamfara bandits kill seven in fresh attack

By Nasir Muhammad

GUSAU—BANDITS, again, killed seven people in Gummi town, Gummi Local Government Area of Zamfara State, with several people reportedly injured in the attack last night.

The state had witnessed several attacks in recent time, but last night's attack was the first in Gummi Local Government.

However, the state Police Public Relations Officer, SP Shehu Muhammad, could not confirm the attack, as he claimed that the command had not been informed.

Recall that gunmen recently killed 34 people in the state.
