Following a tip-off, the Police boss said a team of Operation Puff Adder detectives from Anti-Kidnapping Squad promptly swung into action, using technical intelligence and arrested the principal suspects, one Ibrahim Ahmad, aged 19, of Darmanawa Quarters, Kano.

On interrogation, according to Iiyasu, two of the accomplice, Abdulmajid Mohammed and Musa Sunusi, both 18 years old, of Sheka Quarters, Kumbotso council of Kano State, were nabbed.

During interrogation, according to the Police Commissioner, the suspects confessed to have given the victim an overdose of drugs after kidnapping him, which subsequently led to his death at Sheka Quarters.

, Kumbotso Local Government Area.

Iiyasu added: "The suspects went ahead to bury the boy in a shallow grave at an uncompleted building. The scene was visited by the Commissioner of Police, including a team of forensic experts."

Meanwhile, the commissioner said investigation has commenced into the case.
