

Bandits kill three in Oyigbo, as LG boss confirms 12 dead in latest Ogoni killings

ON AUGUST 19, 2019 7:42 PMIN NEWSBY EMMANUEL OKOGBA

By Egufe Yafugborhi

Ogoni Killings – MEMBER representing Onyigbo Constituency in the Rivers State House of Assembly, Promise Nwankwo, has reported three residents killed by hoodlums who attacked Azuogwu, Omarihu and Obete communities in Oyigbo local government area Monday morning.

This happened as Lahteh Loolo, Chairman of Khana Local Government Area, LGA, whose home was among properties burnt in another Ogoniland bandits invasion on Sunday, disclosed that the death toll over recent attacks has risen to twelve in the locality.

Police Public Relations Officer, Rivers Command, Nnamdi Omoni, said he hasn't learnt of the Oyigbo incident at the time of filing this report, commute sources alleged that the Divisional Police Office at Afam Division saw the corpses of those killed with several properties also destroyed in the ordeal.

READ ALSO: Just in: Fayemi bans use of English Language during traditional events

The lawmaker, Nwankwo said, "They (hoodlums) invaded and attacked people in these communities. Three persons have lost their lives. Currently, Oyigbo local government has about two police establishments, the Area Command and the Afam Police Station.