

Okadaman rapes landlady to death in Ekiti

By Rotimi Ojomoyela

A DO-EKITI—A commercial motorcyclist (name withheld), yesterday, raped his landlady, Bukola Olarewaju, to death at Olorunda area of Ado-Ekiti, Ekiti State capital.

Vanguard gathered that the mother of three, described by family members as middle-aged, was at home alone after her husband had gone to work, while the children were said to have gone for holiday lessons, when the incident happened.

The fleeing suspect was alleged to have broken into the woman's room, threatened her with a cutlass and tied her up before raping her.

It was also gathered that after the act, the tenant fled the house. But some of his belongings were found in the room, which confirmed that he was responsible for the act.

One of the children of the deceased, who spoke with Vanguard, said he saw the suspect on a motorcycle while returning home, but did not know the okadaman had killed his mother.

The husband of the deceased and her children could not hold their tears as they wept profusely.

The state Police Command Public Relations Officer, Caleb Ikechukwu, who confirmed the incident, said the Police had swung into action to bring the suspect to book.

accident occurred as a result of over-speeding and dangerous

The FRSC official said the crash occurred at a sharp bend, reckless driver to law enforcement agents nearby.
