The Ekiti State Police Command has revealed that a middle-aged woman, Mrs Bukola Olarewaju, who was murdered in Ado Ekiti on Thursday was raped and strangled by the killer.

Olanrewaju, the mother of three, was allegedly raped to death at Olorunda area of the state capital by a tenant and commercial motorcycle operator.

The man, who was a tenant to the deceased had fled after allegedly committing the nefarious act.

Speaking with journalists in Ado Ekiti, the Command's Public Relations Officer, DSP Caleb Ikechukwu, said the suspect after raping the woman, also strangled her to death.

He said medical examination conducted on the deceased at the Ekiti State University Teaching Hospital (EKSUTH) confirmed that she was raped before being strangled to death by her assailant.
