

Woman killed in Taraba

In a related development, a woman was killed by armed men at Tor-Musa village in Wukari Local Government Area of Taraba State.

The council Chairman, Mr. Daniel Grace, disclosed this to Channels Television via telephone, yesterday.

He explained that suspected members of a militia group ambushed two persons travelling on a motorbike and killed the passenger, while the rider was injured.

According to Grace, "the travellers left Donga council of Taraba and headed for Wukari before they were ambushed and in the process, one person was killed and the other injured; they were riding on a motorcycle.

"The attack took place at Tor-Musa Forest. The person killed is a woman, while the rider (a man) sustained several degrees of injury."

The council boss noted that the injured victim had been taken to a hospital in Donga.
