

News

vanguardnews

@vanguardnews

@

Man allegedly strangles father in Oyo

AN Iyaganku Senior Prosecutions, DPP. Magistrate's Court sitting in Ibadan, yesterday, remanded 32-year-old Ibrahim Isiaka in Agodi Correctional Centre for allegedly strangling his father to death.

Senior Magistrate T. B. Ogunkanmi, who did not take the plea of the defendant, ordered that he be remanded in custody, pending receipt of legal advice from the state Directorate of Public Ogunkanmi, thereafter, adjourned the matter till February 13, 2020 for mention. It was gathered that Ibrahim of Alagbagba area, Ashi, Ibadan was in court on a count charge of murder.

The prosecutor, Inspector Sunday Ojeleye, told the court that Ibrahim on November 8, at about 10a.m., allegedly caused the death of his 72-year-old father, Busari Isiaka, by strangling him to death.

Ojeleye said: "The defendant was alleged to have pushed his father to the floor in the process.

"The incident was said to have occurred at Alagbagba area, Ashi Bodija, Ibadan."

He said the offence contravened Section 316 and punishable under Section 319 of the Criminal Code Cap 38, Vol.II, Laws of Oyo State, 2000.