

ospital in os to Mr deteriorating state of the baby, informed the Office of the Public Rights Law of 2015 and Lagos
State Safeguarding and Child Hospital. Unfortunately, it was discovered that the baby that policy of free and quantat medical services for Lagosian

Policeman kills driver, NYSC member, one other in Bayelsa

By Emem Idio

YENAGOA—A policeman attached to one of the new generation banks in Ekeki suburbs of Yenagoa, the Bayelsa State capital, yesterday, shot dead a bus driver of one of the popular transport companies, a National Youth Service Corps, NYSC, member and one passenger.

It was gathered that passengers were disembarking from the 14-seater bus conveying passengers returning from the Yuletide celebrations, close to the bank, when a disagreement ensued between the driver and the officer.

In the cause of the disagreement, the policeman, who is now on the run, reportedly opened fire on the occupants, killing the driver and two other passengers, including the serving NYSC member on the spot.

Following the shootings, pandemonium broke out, as angry residents went on rampage destroying the Automated Teller Machine, ATM, stand of the bank sited close to the road.

Meanwhile, three police vans and mobile policemen have been drafted to the scene of the incident located close to the Central Motor Park, Ekeki.

Contacted, spokesman of the Bayelsa State Police Command ASP Asinim Butswat, said he was trying to get confirmation from the Divisional Police Officer of Ekeki Police Division.

Students of Al-Yasar Primary and Secondary School, Ijoko, Ogun State, resume after the Christmas and New Year holiday, yesterday.
PHOTO: Kehinde Gbadamosi.

4 Naval personnel killed, 3 foreigners abducted on Ramos River

By Samuel O...