

DAY, JANUARY 31, 2020

vanguardnews

@vanguardnews

@vanguardnews

NEWS HOTLINES

01-8773962

08052867058

Man conspires with friends to kill, burn, bury girlfriend in Taraba

By Femi Bolaji

JALINGO — TARABA state police command has arrested the principal suspect of a conspiracy that led to the killing and burning of a lady, Imbajuri Ambisi, in Taraba state.

The principal suspect, Munda Bala, was yesterday paraded with other suspects for various criminal offences at the Police headquarters in Jalingo.

Spokesman of the police command, DSP David Misal said the principal suspect conspired with two of his friends to kill, burn and bury Ambisi, who he was cohabiting with.

He further explained that efforts are on to arrest Bala's accomplices, who are currently at large.

According to him, "investigations revealed that Munda Ahmed Bala is a boyfriend to the deceased.

"He with his two friends now at large conspired and killed the girl, burnt her to ashes and buried her remains in the bush. "Efforts are on to arrest the fleeing culprits, while the principal suspect will be charged to court."

He further urged members of the public to supply the police with reliable information that would enhance internal security in the state.