Seven mourners perish in Delta auto crash

By Jimitota Onoyume

About seven persons reportedly lost their lives on Friday in a motor accident on the Koko - Obitugbo Road in Warri North local government area of Delta State.

An eye witness said the deceased were coming from a funeral when the Sienna vehicle they were travelling in ran into an articulated vehicle.

One of the victims reportedly survived and was rushed to a hospital in Oghara, Ehioppe West local government area.

The eye witnesses said some of the corpses were burnt beyond recognition as their Sienna bus burst into flames.

"We heard that those in the Sienna bus were coming from a burial, heading towards the Benin express road when they ran into a trailer. About seven persons we heard died".
