

down.

① Court remands housewife, son, 2 others for alleged murder

A Chief Magistrate's Court in Iyaganku, Ibadan, yesterday, ordered that a 59-year-old housewife, Kehinde Akande, and her son, Samuel, be remanded in a correctional facility for alleged murder.

The police charged Akande, Samuel, Suleiman Lawal, 22, and Shehu Ibrahim, 38 with conspiracy and culpable homicide.

Chief Magistrate Emmanuel Idowu, who did not take the plea of the suspects, remanded them in Agodi Correctional Centre.

Idowu ordered the police to return the case file to the Oyo State Ministry of Justice for legal advice.

He adjourned the case till June 1 for mention.

Earlier, the prosecution counsel, ASP Amos Adewale, told the court that the suspects committed the offence with some others at large, on March 12 at 5.30 a.m. at Sogoye area of Ibadan.

Adewale said they beat a 15-year-old boy to death.

He said the offence contravened the provisions of Section 316 al of the Criminal Law of Oyo State, 2000.