

College of Health student hacked to death by brother in Nasarawa

By David Odama

LAFIA— A student of Nasarawa State College of Health Science and Technology, Keffi, Yusuf Isah Adi, was allegedly hacked to death by his elder brother in Ugah in Lafia, the state capital.

A community leader, Musa Saidu, disclosed that the late Yusuf Isah Adi was allegedly hit on the head with a cutlass while asleep by his elder brother, one Rabiul Musa Omiya.

He said the alleged assailant is now on the run after the incident was reported to the Police at "C" Division in Lafia.

According to him, "Police Special Anti Robbery Squad, SARS, has so far arrested two persons in Ugah Town.

Contacted, Police Public Relations Officer in the state, ASP Ramhan Nansel, who confirmed the incident, said investigation had commenced.

He said the police were already on the trail of the suspect, who he said is now at large, and expressed the hope that the suspect, Rabiul Musa Omiya, would be apprehended.