

In Magumeri, it was gathered that some terrorists, armed with AK47 rifles, stormed a local market in Hoyo village and opened fire on buyers and traders, leaving four persons dead, while others sustained gunshot injuries.

Efforts to get confirmation from the Police Public Relations Officer in Borno State, DSP Edet Okon, proved abortive as his cell phone was not reachable at press time.