

Police nab suspected killers of Suncell Pharmacy proprietor in Abuja

ON JULY 22, 2020 5:13 AMIN METRO

Kindly Share This Story:

...Recover car and phone of deceased.

The suspected killers of Proprietor of Suncell Pharmacy, Gwarimpa, Abuja with the victim's Toyota Camry

By Kingsley Omonobi – Abuja.

The FCT Police Command has arrested three suspects linked to the gruesome murder of late Mr Sunday Chukwujekwu Ike, owner of Suncell Pharmacy Gwarimpa and Publicity Secretary of Association of Community Pharmacists of Nigeria (ACPN), who was killed at his shop on 19th June 2020.

Spokesman, FCT Police Command, DSP Anjuguri Manzah, who confirmed the arrest, noted that “The major milestone in the investigation also led to the recovery of the deceased’s Huawei phone and his Sky blue Toyota Camry car, which were robbed by his assailants.

He said, “The three suspects in police custody were arrested on 12th July 2020 at Lafia in Nasarawa State and Jos, Plateau State, after a painstaking investigation by operatives of the Command Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS).

ALSO READ: Customs Kwara area command destroys 927 bags of poisonous rice, other items

“While one Danbala Buba 42 years old and Isah Rilwanu 24 years old both male were arrested at Lafia, Nasarawa State, in possession of the deceased’s Sky blue Toyota Camry car. Abdulhamid Nasir 35 years old was arrested in possession of the deceased’s Huawei phone at his hideout in Jos, Plateau State.

“Efforts are being intensified to arrest the leader of the gang who is at large.”