

② NSCDC confirms death of kidnapped officer in Kaduna

NIGERIA Security and Civil Defence Corps, NSCDC, in Kaduna State, yesterday, confirmed the death of its kidnapped officer, Mr Bulus Sanda.

NSCDC Commandant in the state, Babangida Dutsinma, who disclosed in a statement by the command's Public Relations Officer, Mr Orndiir Terzungwe, in Kaduna, said the late Sanda, who joined the corps in 2010 was abducted from his residence at Mararaba-Rido, Chikun Local Government Area of the state.

The commandant said the officer had served the corps in different locations, adding that he was dedicated to his duty in an exemplary manner.

"His last location was Kaduna-North Division. He even received an award a day before his abduction and eventual death," he said.

The commandant commiserated with the family of the deceased and prayed to God to grant them the fortitude to bear the loss.

Dutsinma urged members of the public to support the activities of security agencies in the state to ensure the safety of lives and property.
