

By Our Reporters

#ENDSARS protests took a deadly turn, yesterday, after Governor Adegboyega Oyetola of Osun State was attacked by suspected hoodlums in Osogbo, the state capital.

Two persons were reportedly killed during the protest in the state.

One of the victims, a motorcyclist, was said to have been hit by stray bullet at Oke Ayepe area of the state capital while the other, yet to be identified, fell off his motorcycle and died during the commotion that attended the attack on Oyetola.

Earlier, yesterday, the ruling All Progressives Congress (APC) in Osun State had raised the alarm that the protests had been hijacked by members of an opposition party.