GUSAU—OVER 50 armed bandits have attacked Yandoto village of Tsafe Local Government Area of Zamfara State, killing one person and kidnapping three others.

The bandits besides injuring several people in the attack, also rustled over 45 cattle.

According to an eyewitness, Alhaji Abubakar Yunusa, the bandits stormed the community with different weapons, shooting sporadically, which resulted in the death of one person while three others were kidnapped.

Yunusa explained that the bandits stormed the village at about 1:23 am yesterday without hindrance, saying the absence of security operatives gave the bandits a free day to operate.
