

Car kills traditional head in Oyo

By Ola Ajayi

IBADAN—A traditional head in Ogbomoso, Oyo State, Chief Moses Ajala, was yesterday crushed to death.

According to a source, the accident happened at Aroje on Ogbomoso-Ilorin old road.

The deceased, who is Abese Alayede, was hit by a fast-moving car when he tried to cross the road.

The Toyota Camry car with plate number LSR 16 JN was said to be heading towards Ilorin when it ran into the man and killed him on the spot.

Vanguard gathered that the remains of the chief have been deposited at Ladoke Akintola University of Technology Teaching Hospital, Ogbomoso.
