gunmen have killed the younger brother of the Commissioner for Local Government and Chieftaincy Matters in Oyo State, Mrs. Funmilayo Orisadeyi. The victim, Isaac Adedokun was reportedly shot dead on Nihort-Idi-Isin road in Ibadan.

Confirming the story, the Oyo State Police Public Relations Officer, SP Olugbemiga Fadeyi, said a suspect, identified as Joseph has been arrested.

He said the victim's remains had been deposited at the morgue of Adeoyo Hospital, Ibadan.

He said: "Information reaching me indicates that nothing was stolen from the victim. We are still investigating it and the secret behind it will be unravelled as soon as we get to the root of the matter."

The Commissioner for Local Government and Chieftaincy Matters in Oyo state, Mrs. Funmilayo Orisadeyi said two hospitals did not admit the victim.

Further information revealed that the deceased was coming from office around 8pm on Tuesday evening when some gunmen tried to snatch the bike from the owner.

While the attackers were resisted, they shot the deceased at close range.

In a similar situation, a young man identified as Adoja Tanaku was reportedly beheaded during an argument at Bakatare area of Ibadan very close to Ogun State.
