

might be disqualified if the issue is brought to the notice of the election tribunal.

A-Ibom Police kill two robbery suspects in shootout, arrest others

By Chioma Onuegbu, Uyo

The Police in Akwa Ibom State have killed two members of a robbery gang that have been terrorizing, Essien Udim, Ikot Ekpene Local government areas and their neighbours.

The State Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Odiko MacDon, in a statement made available to newsmen on Friday in Uyo, disclosed that the hoodlums were killed in a shoot-out with policemen on Wednesday, November 25, 2020

MacDon also disclosed that three other members of the armed robbery gang were also arrested during the operation in Essien Udim local government area.

He further disclosed that a combined team of tactical Squad raided a criminal hideouts in same Essien Udim which led to the arrest of five(5) hoodlums suspected to have robbed Obo Annang Market earlier in the week.

His words, "In its concerted efforts to restore sanity, peace and tranquility to Essien Udim, Oruk Anam, Ibesikpo Asutan and other parts of the State experiencing criminal activities, the Akwa Ibom State Police Command has recorded yet another victory.