

The two deaths raised security concern across the state.

Reports had it that the corpse of the lady was dumped at a workshop after being allegedly raped to death.

Sources said that some yahoo boys picked the yet to be identified lady and later dumped her corpse at a welders workshop in Ajipowo area of Akure metropolis.

The corpse was said to have been found around noon yesterday at the workshop after she was reportedly raped.

Another source hinted that she might have been killed for money ritual by her assailants who later dumped her corpse at the welders workshop.