

Girl stabs brother to death in Ondo

Dayo Johnson Akure

An 18-year-old, Idowu Biletiri, has stabbed her brother Kehinde, to death in Igbokoda Council Area of Ondo State.

Sunday Vanguard gathered that the suspect who was fond of partying and absconding from the house for days was queried by the brother.

Instead of explaining to him where she went for days without coming back home, she allegedly stabbed him to death.

Eyewitness account informed said the deceased on the ill-fated day questioned her for not sleeping at home the previous day.

"The girl returned home after some days and the brother queried her, seeking to know where she had been.

"Instead of answering her brother, the girl went into the kitchen, took a knife and allegedly stabbed her brother. The brother bled to death.

"It was the girl and her brother that were at home when the incident happened. We learnt that the parents were not at home."

Sunday Vanguard gathered that the suspect is currently being detained at the Igbokoda Police Station.

Contacted, the Public Relations Officer of the state Police Command, Tee Leo-Ikoro, confirmed the incident, saying the arrest was however, made by the state security outfit Amotekun.