

LCC's Head of Route and Incident, Michael Aina, said the

AS users of the express road will testify, despite the toll plaza

Epe Expressway."

Police nab man, 20, for allegedly killing wife in Niger

ONE Lawal Danladi has been arrested for allegedly killing his wife, one Zulai Lawal, in Rafi Local Government Area of Niger State.

It was gathered that Danladi was arrested for allegedly killing his wife of the same address over a misunderstanding in which he beat the victim to coma before she later died.

Speaking on the arrest, yesterday, the state Commissioner of Police, Mr Adamu Usman, said on March 26, based on credible information, Police operatives attached to the Kagara division arrested Danladi, 20-year old, of Kadaura village in the local government area.

"During interrogation, the suspect confessed to have beaten the victim due to a mere argument and she fell unconscious. She was rushed to the general hospital at Wushishi where she was confirmed dead," Usman said.

The commissioner added that investigation had commenced and the suspect would be charged to court as soon as it was completed.