3 farmers killed in fresh Taraba attack

Also yesterday, three persons working on their farmland in Assa village, Wukari Local Government Area of Taraba State were reportedly attacked and killed.

The attack came less than 48 hours after two mobile policemen were killed on their duty post at Dogongawa, along Katsina-Ala/

Takum road.

According to Chairman, Wukari LGA, Daniel Adi, who confirmed the attack to newsmen, "on getting the report that farmers were being attacked in Assa, I spoke with the DPO, we mobilised the security personnel and went there but before getting there three farmers had been killed.

"I want to appeal to the people of Wukari to hold their peace and allow security personnel to do their work."

"From the information we got from a survivor who took cover when the farm was invaded, the attackers came from Ijandeikyura through Ikaior and are suspected to be Tiv militia."
