

One dead, 6 injured in Ogun auto crash

By Bose Adelaja

AN auto crash, Sunday, claimed the life of a male adult along Abeokuta/Sagamu Road, Ogun State, while six others sustained injuries.

It was gathered that the accident occurred at Imo/Emulu village in Obafemi/Owode Local Government.

Vehicles involved were Nissan Micra with number plate LSR 816 XA and an unregistered Lexus car painted in black.

According to eye witnesses, the accident was caused by wrongful overtaking by the Lexus car, which resulted in a head-on collision with the Micra car.

The driver of the Lexus car reportedly fled the scene before the arrival of the response team.

The injured victims were taken to Federal Medical Centre, Idi-Aba and General Hospital, Ijaye for medical attention while the dead man was taken to a nearby hospital.

It was gathered that rescue operation was performed by men of Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), The Nigeria Police, Ogun State Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps (TRACE) and other relevant agencies.
