Gunmen kill 2 in Ebonyi community

Also, no fewer than two persons were, weekend, reportedly killed by unknown gunmen at Okpochiri village in Ukwagba Ngbo community, Ohaukwu Local Government Area of Ebonyi State.

Vanguard gathered that following the attack by the unknown gunmen, many persons in the affected community were reported missing as farmlands were also destroyed.

The Town Union President of Ukwagba, Eze Moses, in a telephone chat with Vanguard, alleged that the victims were killed by those he described as Ezza-Benue people.

Chief Security Officer and head of Ebubeagu Security Network in the council area, Leonard Igwe, gave the names of the persons killed as Friday Omogo Ugadu and Amos Ogabo, adding: "There are many casualties, some are still missing and farms destroyed."

At press time, the Police Public Relations Officer, Ebonyi State Police Command, DSP Loveth Odah said she was yet to get confirmation on the incident.
