RESIDENTS of Dutsen-Kura Hausa Road in Minna, Niger State capital could not hold back tears as they woke up to see a day old baby hanged on a barb wire fence of an uncompleted building.

The residents were helplessly watching the dangling body of the baby on the fence for some hours before alerting the Police.

Already, Niger State Police Command has launched a manhunt to arrest the suspects.

The state Police Command through its spokesman, DSP Wasiu Abiodun, confirmed that investigations are ongoing into the incident.

He said: "On August 12, 2021, at about 1345hrs, based on credible intelligence, Police operatives attached to GRA Division, Minna found a newly born baby along Dutsen-Kura Hausa road, Minna hanging on the barb wire of an uncompleted building."
