I pulled my husband's manhood beyond its elastic limit, says woman arrested for killing her spouse

A middle-aged woman has been arrested by the Police in Lagos for allegedly snuffing life out of her husband during a scuffle in their apartment.

The cry for help from the deceased identified as Alhaji Raheem Ameen alerted residents who rushed to find him on the floor, holding on to his manhood.

A resident, Kafayat who spoke with Crime Guard said, that was not the first time the couple would engage in a brawl. She attributed the cause to accusation of infidelity and negligence of responsibilities by both parties.

She said: "It was the man's voice that alerted us. He was shouting, help, she wants to kill me o, she wants to cut off my manhood o'. Before people rushed there, he was silent and motionless. By the time he was rushed to the hospital, he was pronounced dead on arrival.

"Alhaji's manhood was pulled out. It looked five times its normal size when he was being rushed to the hospital", Kafayat said.

The suspect was taken to Shasha division from where she was transferred to the State Criminal Intelligence Investigation Department, SCIID, Yaba.

She told detectives that she pulled her late husband's manhood in anger.

According to her, "I never meant to kill him. I did it in defense. He started beating me from outside, dragged me and continued beating me. I held on to his penis and pulled it, with the intention to weaken him, so that he would leave me.

But to my surprise, he slumped. I did not know that it was pulled out of its elastic limit. I loved my husband. I never thought the marriage would end this way".

Police sources hinted that a relative of the deceased, Raheem Semiu, reported the matter to the Police. Sources added that Moturayo has been charged to court for murder.
