

Makinde condoles family of flood victim in Ibadan

...promises govt's intervention

By Adeola Badru,
Ibadan

GOVERNOR Seyi Makinde, Friday, commiserated with families of a 28-year old boy, Abiodun Adeleke, who died in a recent flood at Onilu-Moniya Ibadan.

Makinde, who was represented by the Chairman, Oyo State Road Maintenance Agency, OYSROMA, Mr. Kamil Mudashiru, expressed sympathy when he visited the Onilu Central Landlord Association over the recent flood in the community.

Adeleke, a resident of Onilu-Moniya, died on Wednesday night during the heavy downpour, while helping some bike riders to cross the Asanmajana River. He was swept away by the torrent.

The governor assured residents and people of the area that government's intervention would soon be felt in the area.
