

Two brothers murder two, arrested in Ondo

By Dayo Johnson, Akure

TWO brothers, Segun Adeoye and Azeez Adeoye and one Isaiah have been arrested for the alleged murder of an NCE student, Owolabi Oladele and one Seun Akinsiku in Ondo town, Ondo state.

Source said that the suspects were apprehended by the combined team of the Development Committee Peace & Safety Corps, the Amotekun Corps, the Oodua Peoples Congress (OPC) and the Nigerian Police Force.

Police source hinted that the suspects were picked up following the confessional statement of one of them named Isaiah.

Isaiah was alleged to have confessed during interrogation by the police detectives in Enu-Owa police station in Ondo town that he and the brothers murdered the deceased persons.

The suspects reportedly murdered the NCE 3 student of Christian Religious Studies (CRS), at Terere area of New Town in Ondo while the other victim was murdered at Oke Agunla area of the town.

The incident, police investigation showed, was cult related.

Reports had that acting on intelligence report, police detectives trailed the two brothers to the Adeyemi College of Education in Ondo town.

A top police officer told vanguard that "we learnt that the suspects were at the Adeyemi College of Education in Ondo town so we immediately mobilized to the scene in conjunction with the personnel of the state security outfit code-named Amotekun.

"When they sighted us, they ran into the college and we followed them and they were apprehended without any casualty.

"The suspects are brothers from the same father and mother.

"The suspects have been transferred to the Anti-cultism Department of the Police Command in Akure for further investigation.

The state police command image maker, Ohufunmilayo Odunlami could not be reached for comment but a top police officer confirmed the arrest of the suspects.

He said that the suspects would soon be arraigned in court after a thorough investigation of the death of the deceased by police detectives.