

Police arrest suspected ritualists with human head in Oyo

By Sola Ishola

I BADAN — TWO suspected ritualists, Ismaila Wasiu, Mutairu Shittu have been arrested by operatives of the Oyo State Police Command with a fresh human head.

The Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, DSP Adewale Osifeso, who disclosed this in Ibadan, yesterday said the Police received credible intelligence from residents of Ayekale, Saki Area of Oyo State, at about 2:30 pm on Monday.

He said that the residents alleged the duo of Ismaila Wasiu 'm' age 29 yrs and Mutairu Shittu 'm' age 35yrs, were found in possession of a fresh human head.

"Oyo State Police Command attached to Saki Divisional Police Headquarters immediately swung into action and arrested the duo with the fresh human head and the dismembered body of the victim who has been identified to be one Mujidat 'f'.

"Preliminary investigation reveals that the victim was lured from Lagos through a phone call by one of the suspects, Ismaila Wasiu, before the perpetration of the dastardly act", he stated.

Osifeso said "The dismembered body has been deposited at the morgue, while intensive investigations regarding the incident continue", he added