

Teenager killed, corpse dumped inside a bag in Lagos

By Esther Onyegbula

OPERATIVES attached to the Mancenter division, Lagos State Police Command, have begun an investigation into the death of a yet-to-be-identified teenage girl discovered inside a travelling bag close to a popular hotel located at Adekunle village, Adeniyi Jones, Ikeja.

Although the circumstances surrounding the death of the teenager is unknown, eye witness account said the victim's mutilated remains were discovered, yesterday, at a corner of Jafac Close that leads directly to the hotel.

A resident said "we found the girl dead inside the box this morning. I believe it was dumped there last night when residents had gone to bed. We don't know how it got to that place."

Vanguard learned that policemen from Mancenter station conducted a search in the hotel but the hotel wasn't sealed.

Officials the state Ministry of Health with the police later picked evacuated the body.

When contacted the Spokesperson Lagos state police command, Adekunle Ajisebutu, said he will get back. However, he didn't as at press time.
