

Corpses of night club owner, lady recovered in car in Kano

By Bashir Bello

KANO — The lifeless bodies of a popular night club owner, Steven Ayika, and a lady, Chiamaka Emmanuel, have been recovered in Kano.

Spokesman of Kano State Police Command, Abdullahi Haruna, confirmed recovery of the lifeless bodies of the duo in a car.

Haruna said: "On the 23/11/2021, about 0450hrs, a report was received that a car was sighted on Katsina Road, Fagge LGA, Kano State with two occupants, a male and a female motionless.

"Upon receipt of the report, the Commissioner of Police, Kano State Command, Sama'ila Dikko, raised and instructed a team of detectives to proceed to the scene. The team immediately rushed to the scene.

"Victims, a male and a female, inside the back seat of a Siena bus were removed and rushed to Murtala Muhammed Specialist Hospital Kano, where a medical doctor confirmed them dead.

"On preliminary investigation, the male deceased was identified as Steven Ayika of Jaba Quarters, Kano while the female deceased identified as Chiamaka Emmanuel of the same address. However, investigation is in progress."