of the State.

One person, however, survived the attack but sustained injuries and was hospitalized.

Security agents were yet to confirm the incident, but Davidson Malison, National Publicity Secretary, Irigwe Development Association, IDA, confirmed it saying, "At about 8:20 pm of Monday, January 24, 2022, some Rigwe youths on a motorcycle were ambushed at Du Village of Kwall District, Bassa LGA of Plateau State.

"Three were killed instantly while one sustained gunshot injuries. Names of those killed are Chayi Gado, Monday Daro, and Ezekiel Peter while Iveh Gah was injured the person."

Recall that last weekend, gunmen killed four people at a mining site at Dong community in Jos, including three youths of the same parents, sparking protest among residents.

The three siblings, Francis Danboyi, Livinus Danboyi, and Moses Danboyi will be buried on the 27th of this month.
