

Man kills, dismembers girlfriend's body in Osun

By Shina Abubakar,
Osogbo

THE police have arrested one Bashiru Ajadi for allegedly killing and dismembering his girlfriend named Ashiata Salimon in Ajadi Arin village, in Ayedire local government area of Osun State when she visited the suspect.

Ashiata was declared missing four weeks ago after she had visited Ajadi at his residence in the village via Oke-Osun.

However, some relatives suspected she was kidnapped by her lover and decided to report the incidents to Amotekun operatives in Iwo.

She was later found dead and her corpse dismembered for alleged ritual purposes.

Confirming the incident, the Field Commander of Osun Amotekun, Comrade Amitolu Shittu said the suspect fled when operatives went to his house with a view to inviting him for questioning.

"One of the sons of the victim and a friend of his mother reported the matter to us at Iwo community. Our men swung into action but before we got to the house at Ajadi, he had fled. The matter was later reported to the police and the suspect was arrested at Laupon in Oyo State.

He said the suspect will be prosecuted for killing Ajadi and dismembering her body.