

Again, gunmen attack Soludo's community, kill one policeman

By Vincent Ujumadu

GUNMEN yesterday attacked Governor Chukwuma Soludo's Isuofia Community, killing one policeman.

The attack took place at the junction leading to the governor's house, where security operatives were said to be erecting a security post.

According to the information, the hoodlums stormed the arena shooting indiscriminately, forcing the residents to scamper for safety during which the policeman was killed.

The Anambra State Police command was yet to comment on the incident as at the time of filing this report, although eye witnesses confirmed the attack.

It was the third attack by gunmen in Anambra State this week, the previous ones being the attack at Atani Police Station where four policemen were killed, while another attack at Nteje police station led to the death of one of the gunmen.

Gunmen had also penultimate week set ablaze the headquarters of Soludo's local government, Aguata.

Recall that Governor Soludo, at his inauguration on March 17, offered the olive branch to the separatist groups and unknown gunmen, assuring them of his readiness to make peace with them. He later set up 15 member committee headed by Dr. Chidi Odinkalu to find a way of making peace with the agitators. The committee is yet to begin its work.

1 remains Decree 24, NASS amending Falana called constitution, you will not see the signature of the man who signed the law, that's the fraud.

"When you see a law, the name of the person who signed it should be there with the date.

"Decree 24 of 1999 was promulgated by General Abdulsalam Abubakar on the 5th of May 1999 but today you will not see his name on it. Its a fraudulent document.

"If you want to pardon your friends, you must also extend the presidential pardon to all thieves because if the big thieves are being asked to walk away, we must also extend it to others.

"If we are changing decrees to actions, the National Assembly have not shown any readiness to review the constitution with a view to restoring the Federal status of the country."

He urged state governments to set up lawyers to challenge the Federal Government over issues that affect the effective running of their activities which the Federal Government had taken over.