

Generator repairer in court for stabbing neighbour to death

3

By Onozure Dania

LAGOS—A generator repairer, Quadus Fatai, who allegedly murdered his neighbour with a broken bottle, was yesterday arraigned before a Lagos High Court sitting at Tafawa Balewa Square, TBS.

Fatai, who was docked before Justice Yetunde Adesanya is facing a one-count charge of murder preferred against him by Lagos State.

The prosecution counsel, Mr Olayemi Shofolu, told the court that the defendant committed the alleged offence on April 28, 2013.

He said the incident took place at about 8 pm, at 13, Itafaji Street, Lagos Island.

According to the prosecutor, the offence committed is contrary to Section 221, of the criminal law of Lagos State 2011.