KADUNA—A notorious bandit suspected to have been terrorizing communities in Chikun Local Government area of Kaduna State has been killed by security operatives in the state.

Two AK-47 rifles were recovered with charms, amulets, a mobile phone and two motorcycles.

Kaduna State Commissioner of Internal Security and Home Affairs, Samuel Aruwan, who disclosed this yesterday, said the security agencies in the state were enhancing collaborative measures because of recently reported threats by terrorists of attacking the state capital and environs.

According to him, the attention of the Kaduna State Government has been drawn to a circulated intelligence extract highlighting a plan by bandits to attack Kaduna and neighbouring communities.

The Kaduna State Government, therefore, appealed for the continued vigilance of all citizens as the state continues to confront security challenges.
