The suspected former Chief Medical Director of Kaima General Hospital, Kaima in Kaima Local Government Area of Kwara State, Dr. Adio Adebawale now in Edo State has been invited by the state police command and is now facing prosecution in Kwara State.

Vanguard gathered that the suspect reportedly told the police during interrogation that the victim simply identified as Ifeoluwa was his girlfriend, and that he killed her and dumped her in a bush in Alapa in Asa LGA of Kwara State, before it was later traced to his office.

The police, following series of investigations, later led the suspect to his office in Kaima General Hospital, where they found the office tiles to be freshly done, they suspected foul play and removed the tiles.

The police investigation team and members of the community present, were shocked to found the decomposed body of the CMD former girlfriend, Ifeoluwa, buried underground after the tiles were removed.

Other items recovered in the detained doctor's office include two telephone handsets found in the hand bag of one of the ladies, all found in the doctor's drawer.

There were also two female handbags, a female wig, a veil and female pants found in the office.

Vanguard also gathered that Ifeoluwa was declared missing by her relatives in Tanke area of Ilorin, last November before she was discovered buried inside the former CMD office.

The second kidnapped victim, Nofisat Halidu, found inside the trash bin, had been declared missing by the husband, Mr. Halidu, in Kaima since November 22, 2021.

Contacted, spokesman of Kwara State Police Command, Ajayi Okasanmi, confirmed the incidents.

Okasanmi said in a statement, yesterday: "On assumption of office, Mr. Paul Odama as Commissioner of Police, Kwara State, while going through some petitions written by some citizens, a particular case struck the CP regarding a reported case of one missing lady by name Nofisat Halidu, in Kaima, Kaima LGA of Kwara State on 21/11/2021.

"The CP immediately ordered the setting up of a high-powered investigation team led by the Deputy Commissioner of Police in the State CID, to unravel the mystery surrounding the kidnap case and other unresolved cases before his assumption of Office.

"Based on the CP order, investigation into the cases began on Friday and working on a lead provided by the arrest and confession of one Dr. Adio Adebawale.

"Investigation into the cases are progressing and we will bring the development to the notice of the public as soon as possible. After investigation, then follow prosecution."
