Fourteen terrorists, including Abu Hassan, a Commander (Munzir) of the Jama'at Ahl as-Sunnah lid-Da'wah wa'l-Jihad (Boko Haram) terrorist group, have been killed by troops of 'Operation Hadin Kai', in an encounter in the Mafa axis of Borno State.

Sources disclosed that the terrorists were killed after a gunner in the troop's patrol convoy opened fire at the fleeing terrorists' position, with an Anti-Air Craft gun, which resulted in the neutralisation of the 14 terrorists.

Counter insurgency expert and security analyst, Zagazola Makama, confirmed the offensive, noting that Abu Hassan, a Commander who led the robbery mission, and 13 other fighters were killed.

One of the terrorists, who was communicating with a Commander in the camp of Abu Iklima, was heard saying that the infidels, referring to the troops, "have killed 13 of our mujahedeens, including Abu Hassan".

“Someone fired at us while we are withdrawing from the battlefield in Ngowom. We are on our way with the corpses. We are coming to Gaizuwa.

“Abu Hassan has slept (dead); some of our fighters were also wounded, and we may need emergency medical interventions. Please be on standby,” he said.
