

Lady stabs lover to death during quarrel in Lagos

By Mathew Johnson

THE Police in Lagos have arrested a lady for allegedly stabbing her 21-year-old lover, Sadig Dahiru, to death, in the Lekki area of Lagos.

The incident occurred in the early hours of yesterday, at the deceased apartment on Oba Arinusa Street, Agungi, Lekki.

Vanguard gathered that the lovers were embroiled in a quarrel that degenerated into a fight, in the process of which the suspect, Esther Paul, made for the kitchen knife and allegedly stabbed Dahiru.

Stepfather of the deceased, Mr Kazem Obafunso, alerted policemen at Ilasan Division, whose officers rushed Dahiru, who was bleeding profusely, to Evercare Hospital Lekki, where he was confirmed dead by the doctor on duty.

The suspect was subsequently arrested.

The spokesman for the Lagos State Police Command, SP Benjamin Hudenrin, informed that the body had been deposited at the IDH mortuary, adding that an autopsy would be carried out as part of an ongoing investigation into the matter.

He added that the case would be transferred to the State Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department, SCIID Panty, Yaba for further investigation.

•The suspect.