

News

① Auto crash kills 2 sons of Borno ex-commissioner, 2 others

By Chinedu Adonu

TWO sons of former commissioner of Education and ex-speaker, Borno State House of Assembly, Inuwa Kubo, were among four people who lost their lives in a fatal motor accident along the Kwaya-Kusar-Peta- Shani road, Wednesday evening.

It was gathered that their car lost control before hitting construction sands, put by the roadside by the contractor handling the construction of the Federal highway.

The victims, who have been buried according to Islamic rites, were said to be heading to Shani Local Government Area from Maiduguri, in preparation for the campaign of the All Progressives Congress, APC, yesterday.

In honour of the departed, the State Deputy Governor, Umar Usman Kadafur, whose campaign for the Southern Borno senatorial seat they were going for, had to cancel the campaign rally to attend the funeral prayer and to sympathize with the families of the victims.