

Mosogar monarch condemns alleged killing of gunman by mob

By Olalekan Bilesanmi

HRM Sunday Odogu Okpurhe, Uduaka, the Ovie of Mosogar Kingdom, has condemned the alleged killing of an unidentified gunman by a mob on Sunday, January 22, 2023.

The monarch, in a statement released by the Secretary to Ovie-In-Council, Chief Silver Anuwa, said the ugly incident, which occurred at the Sublane Junction where a mob allegedly attacked and killed a man after he was intercepted with a gun, while trying to enter Mosogar farmland, is very unfortunate and condemnable.

The statement read: "The ugly incident that occurred at the Sublane Junction, Mosogar Town, Ethiopo West LGA, Delta State, on Sunday, January 22, 2023 where an unidentified man was allegedly killed by a mob after he was intercepted with a gun, while trying to enter Mosogar farmland, is very unfortunate and condemnable.

"Even though there are high records of kidnapping, raping and murder cases in the village communities by suspected Fulani herdsmen, that should not be a license to take the life of any person unlawfully.

"Mosogar Kingdom is known for peace and we do not support such extra-judicial killings and people taking the law into their hands.

"We enjoin the general public to be peaceful and law abiding as we call on the police to fish out the perpetrators and bring them to face the full wrath of the law.

"The kingdom will continue to collaborate with security agencies in order to forestall further recurrence and curb the growing challenge of kidnapping in the area.

"We should learn to report or handover to the police if any person is caught with guns or other dangerous weapons within Mosogar Kingdom.

"Finally, we implore everyone to go about their normal businesses as the security agencies are on top of the situation"

Rasaki begin door-to-door campaign

their abundant experience, adding that electorates must collect their Permanent Voter Cards, PVCs, to exercise their civic duty in the poll.

Speaking in one of their meetings held in Ado-Ekiti, Rasaki said: "This is a clarion call to support a team that symbolises the competence, integrity and experience required to further transform the nation and make Nigeria a pride of all citizens. I want to categorically state that we have put series of efforts in place at ensuring a resounding victory at the poll by next month and we are very optimistic that Tinubu would emerge victorious at the 2023 poll.

"Parts of our strategic efforts are the door-to-door mobilisation train of the Presidential Women Campaign Council where I serve as Chairman, Operation and Logistics. We are doing all these to evangelise the message of renewed hope through sensitisation programme for millions of youths, men, women and religious bodies across the country".
