

that have now been resolved.

RIVERS: 2 killed, houses burnt

Two persons were, yesterday, feared dead in Ubimini Community ward 12, Emohua Local Government Area of Rivers State.

It was gathered that a pregnant woman and a member of a local vigilante group, EMOVIS, Emohua Vigilant Service, were killed.

It was gathered that about two houses were burnt in the incident at Ubimini, Emohua LGA, causing people to flee the area for safety.

A source, who pleaded anonymity, gave the name of the pregnant woman as Ruth Osah and the EMOLVIS member as Mark Orduize.

The source noted that two houses were burnt, adding that the development halted the conduct of the elections in ward 12 Emohua LGA.

The President of Ubimini Youth Council, Mr Ikechukwu Wordu confirmed the de-respond to the development.

INEC removes BVAS for repairs in Wike's unit

The election was also characterised by the late arrival of INEC officials and materials at most voting centres.

While Governor Nyesom Wike said he was disappointed in the process at his Polling Unit 7A of Ward 9, Rumuepirikom, Obio/Akpor LGA where the BVAS initially failed to capture him; former Minister of Transportation, Rotimi Amaechi, who had a seamless accreditation and voting, noted that results from a certain area in Obio/Akpor LGA would determine whether BVAS was credible or ineffective.

The Rivers State governor chided INEC over poor preparations when the BVAS failed to function, denying him accreditation at his Polling Unit.

He lamented: "We are highly disappointed. INEC told us

Continues on Page 5