

METRO

March 12, 2023

Cash Crunch: Ibadan radio presenter slumps, dies while trekking to office

HOME NEWS 2023 ELECTIONS POLITICS METRO BUSINESS SPORTS EDITORIAL COLUMNS ALLURE E-EDIT

A popular presenter with Ibadan-based private radio station, Fresh FM Nigeria, popularly known as Baba Bintin, has been reported dead after he slumped while trekking to work for his programme yesterday morning.

As gathered by Sunday Vanguard, the death of Baba Bintin was announced during a radio programme by his colleagues, Komolafe Olaiya and Olalomi Amole.

Related News

NLC threatens nationwide strike over fuel, cash crunch

Fresh FM staff dies while trekking to office

SERAP to Ajimobi: Repair Ayefele's Fresh FM building or face legal action

Earlier during the programme, Oyin Ado, yesterday, the duo spoke about the unusual lateness of the presenter to the studio but towards the end of the programme, the presenters announced that he died while trekking from Amuloko to Fresh FM at Challenge with the hope of getting a Point of Sale, POS, agent to get cash.

In an audio played on the radio, a man said they found him slumped on his way to the office and rushed him to the University College Hospital, UCH, but died on getting to the hospital.

Baba Bintin, who spoke the Ijesha dialect fluently and was usually addressed as 'Boda Olu' and 'Uncle' by Komolafe, was a comic presenter on the Oyin Ado programme on Saturdays on the radio station to give updates on markets in the state.

MORE TOP STORIES

Flood: FG to relocate 10 000 persons in Kogi

Gbajabiamila denies lobbying to be Tinubu's Chief of Staff

ADP overrules embattled Chairman on suspension of Kaduna guber candidate

Disclaimer

Comments expressed here do not reflect the opinions of Vanguard newspapers or any employee thereof.

ABOUT US
CONTACT US

ADVERTISE WITH US
PRIVACY POLICY