"The suspect had participated in several armed robberies, kidnappings and cattle rustling across the state," Gambo said

Yar'bushiya further confessed to working under the camp of "Dankarami," a notorious terrorist kingpin, wanted by the Police for committing crimes against humanity in Katsina, Zamfara, Kaduna, Kebbi and Sokoto States.

The suspect also disclosed that he has been involved in banditry for the past three years and participated in several attacks carried out in Sabuwar Dandume, Faskari, Jibia, Batsari, and Kurfi LGA of Katsina State.

Yar'bushiya who however pleaded for mercy said he will never participate in banditry again if he is spared.
