KADUNA—Terrorists who attacked a village in Kagarko, Kaduna State have killed a soldier and rustled over 80 cows belonging to the locales.

A source told journalists in Kaduna that the men of the underworld "on Tuesday evening shot dead a soldier while three others sustained gunshot injuries during exchange of gunfire in Akoti village near Kagarko town in Kaduna State."

A locale, Musa Arun, said a civilian was also injured during the fierce encounter with the bandits."

According to him, "The bandits rustled over 80 cows while passing through Akpoti village when the soldiers were alerted. Unfortunately, the bandits killed a soldier, wounded three in the process.

"One of the villagers was hit by a stray bullet from the bandits and he is currently receiving treatment in a hospital."

The Police was yet to react to the incident.
